

The Annals of Cardiothoracic Surgery (ACS) is a premier journal that has a focused theme in each issue. In the Perspectives section, experts are invited to share their knowledge and experience and are strongly encouraged express their personal opinions to our readers on current controversial topics.

This document is a structured template for writing a Perspective Article.

FONT

The preferred file format is a Microsoft Word document. Please use 12 pt Arial or Times New Roman fonts throughout. Line spacing should be 1.5 or 2. There should be a space between each paragraph/bullet point.

TITLE PAGE

Title: maximum 200 characters

Authors: include those who have contributed intellectually and practically. For all authors please include first name, middle initial (if appropriate) and last name

Institutions: primary and affiliated institutions, including Department, Institution, City and Country

Corresponding author: include first name, middle initial (if appropriate), last name, postal address (including Department, Institution, City and Country) and e-mail address. Also include the telephone number and fax number for the corresponding author

NON-STRUCTURED ABSTRACT

The non-structured abstract is limited to 300 words. The abstract should be written in one paragraph and contain no subheadings. The abstract should only emphasize the key message(s) of your article.

BODY OF TEXT

The word limit is 3000 words. Perspective articles can be more subjective, forward-looking or speculative. A narrative review paper presenting controversial positions or a paper of the same topic advocating opposing opinions will be published as a Perspective. Most Perspective articles will be solicited by the Editors. However, we also welcome timely, unsolicited submissions. A Perspective article should be structured and contain subheadings, including an Introduction and Conclusion. The subheadings for the main body of text are flexible and subject to the authors' judgement (eg. Perspectives, Pros and Cons, Caveats etc...)

REFERENCE

40 references maximum
